

I would like to let you know how much I appreciate XM services. I get a clear signal. I can hear my favorite stations and block out ones I do not want to hear. I can get information in Indiana and when I travel out of state. The National Weather is supported with some federal funds, it seems logical that the information should be accessible by everyone. I also appreciate how useful it is for individuals with disabilities.